

25 May 2015

To Whom It May Concern

The Horowhenua District Council is pleased to provide its' support to the endeavors of the Wildlife Foxton Trust.

The Wildlife Foxton Trust has been designed to fulfill four primary functions:

- To provide an educational and tourist centre in Foxton highlighting the local flora and fauna
- To assist in the rejuvenation of Foxton and establishing Foxton as a destination for both National and International tourists
- To continue to be proactive and become the hub for other ecology and Foxton based trusts
- To be proactive in the development of the ecological aspects of the region.

The fulfillment of each of these functions will contribute to the enhancement of the environmental, cultural, social and environmental well being of our community, complimenting the same community outcome aspirations of the Horowhenua District Council.

Council wishes the Wildlife Foxton Trust well in their endeavors and will support the achievement of the Trust's objectives as it is able. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you require further information.

Yours sincerely

David Clapperton
Chief Executive